INJUNCTION DISSOLVED

City May Now Compel Telegraph ComPany to Pnt Wires Underground.
Under an order issued yesterday by United States Circuit Judge Goff, the Western Union Telegraph Company may now be compelled to obey the terms of a city ordinance requiring it to place wires and conduits underground. Judge Goff dismissed an injunction issued by Judge Edmund Waddill, by which the city for the past five years has been unable to enforce its requirements. The motion for a continuance of the injunction was made by Judge A. L. Holliday, and the city was represented by City Attorney Henry R. Pollard.

"I wish to see your property. But first, is it a desirable place for a home?" "Come and see." "Will values increase?" "They should double within five years."

"Is the location good?" "It is unequalled." "Have you good drainage and free sewerage service to home-builders?" "Yes." "Have you granolithic sidewalks?" "Yes." "Have you good and frequent car service for one fare to all points?" "Yes."

"Have you good, pure water?" "Yes; piped to every home."

"Have you telephone and electric light service?" "Yes." "How far is your property from the heart of the city?" "Fifteen minutes from Seventh and

Broad." "Is the property high, healthy and free from the smoke, gases and dirt of the city?" "Yes, and the views are unequalled." "Is the property restricted?" "Yes, for all time, which insures its permanent desirability as a residential section." "Have you sold many lots?" "Since January 1. 1909, we have sold 290-lots and also a 23/4-acre tract, most sales having been to those who have built or will build homes." "How are 'the taxes?" "Very low compared with city taxes. To owners of personal property or stocks and bonds there would be a big saving in taxes." "How are your prices?" "The lowest of all for high-class property.'

"What are your terms?" "Easy payments or all cash, whichever you prefer."

"All this seems satisfactory. Now show me WOODLAND HEIGHTS. I want one of your best sites."
